Middle/High School Merit Day

The middle/high school merit day will be Friday, May 14, 2021.

Due to closure/limited availability of theme parks and other attractions, we are going to allow students to plan their own day. Parents/students have the option of planning a day trip or staying in the local area with friends and/or family. Students who have received a demerit the first or second semester must report to school at 7:50 A.M. in dress code on May 14.

I also provide services grades pre-K through 8th grade level in math and science.

1. 8 weeks total (June 1st-July 1st = 5 weeks) (July 12th-29th = 3 weeks)
2. Spectrum phonics, reading and math
3. Fry words, sight words, flash cards
4. Medical absences and vacation absences are fine up to 2 weeks
5. Payment is $25 per session cash, cash app or PayPal
6. Minimum of 2 and maximum of sessions per week
7. I usually have a long waiting list so please be courteous with absences.

Please call (270) 305-6111 or email stefaniehasert@gmail.com for references. This is my sixth year to tutor for both Heritage and public school students. I'm a certified teacher since 1994 certified as a reading specialist and taught writing for 24 years as well. My ability to also tutor math comes from understanding and overcoming my own struggles as a student.
